

Kingdom of Redonda

I, King Bob the Bald of Redonda, successor to King Juan II and King of Redonda since the title was passed to me on 1st April 1997 at which time I raised my standard atop my Kingdom thereby asserting my right to the succession hereby bequeath my title to my successor to rule benignly and in peace and uphold the literary traditions of the founding King Felipe on his accession to the throne.

I, King Bob the Bald, appoint Mr Michael Howarth of Salisbury, England as my successor on condition he raises his standard upon the Kingdom within one year of my parting from this mortal soil and continues the timeless friendship with the neighbouring island of Antigua.

Signed and Sealed Bob the Bald

Bob the Bald, Rex Redonda

Witness Sir Nicholas Montlake

Sir Nicholas Montlake, Commander Redonda Land Forces